Per our discussion, here is what I believe is acceptable and that I will approve (noting that quality review may still amend)

International Class 010

Face shields, also known as, personal protective equipment (PPE), namely, face shields for protection against viral infections

Subject: CHOICE SHIELDS (+design) - s/n 88956839 - Atty. Dkt# AIPA-2295D - Attn.: Kevin L. Soules, Esq.

Greetings

My name is Ron Aikens and I am the Examining Attorney prosecuting US Patent and Trademark Office Application Serial No(s). 88/956,839 for the trademark CHOICE SHIELDS (+design). The only issue preventing the application from moving forward is a minor change in the identification of goods: the identification must expressly state the type of Class 010 PPE contemplated as well as their intended use. I would therefore like to amend the identification to the following:

International Class 10

Face shields, also known as, personal protective equipment (PPE) , namely, for use in the medical and dental fields

If you so authorize this amendment to be entered, I will enter the amendment via Examiner's Amendment, include the information in the file and move the application towards registration. If you prefer that I do not enter the amendment or have further questions before agreeing to the amendment, please contact me. Either way, responding via email to this specific request for an amendment to the identification is appropriate.

Thank you for your attention on this matter.

-Aikens
