  - (c) the Guarantor shall not take any steps to enforce any claim that it may have against the Customer without receiving HITFL's prior written consent (which consent may be conditional).
- 4.6 The liability of the Guarantor to HITFL under this Guarantee and Indemnity shall continue for all purposes (including Interest) and every sum of money which may now or in future be or become due or owing to HITFL by the Customer (or which would have become so due or owing were it not for the bankruptcy, liquidation administration or insolvency (or analogous proceedings) of the Customer shall be deemed to continue due and owing to HITFL by the Customer until the same shall be actually repaid to HITFL notwithstanding the bankruptcy, liquidation, administration or insolvency (or analogous proceedings) of the Customer.

- 4.7 (a) HITFL may, but shall not be obliged to, resort for its own benefit to any other means of payment at any time and in any order it thinks fit without releasing or reducing the liability of the Guarantor under this Guarantee and Indemnity; and
- (b) HFITL may enforce this Guarantee and Indemnity either before or after resorting to other means of payment and in the latter case without entitling the Guarantor to any benefit from such other means of payment for so long as the Customer's Liabilities and all other (if any) monies and liabilities of any kind whatsoever due, owing or incurred at any time and whether actually or contingently to HITFL by the Customer remain due, owing or payable (whether actually or contingently).

- 9.3 To the extent that any payment to HITFL (whether by the Guarantor or any other person and whether under any judgment or court order or otherwise) in a currency other than the Appropriate Currency shall on actual conversion into the Appropriate Currency fall short of the relevant liability of the Customer expressed in the Appropriate Currency then the Guarantor as a separate and independent obligation will indemnify HITFL against such shortfall.
