		TEVA	Other issues: From time to time, various intellectual property pirates have attempted to take advantage of foreign laws permitting the acquisition of intellectual property rights, including trademark rights, by registration. Other pirates may currently exist or hereafter take actions. In most cases, when pressed, these pirates have alleged rights superior to Thatcher relative to, among other things, the TEVA mark.

The spiral which is included in the "HAND DESIGN" is a Hopi symbol for water. As such, the "HAND DESIGN" is both Zuni and Hopi-inspired. Given the origins of the mark, various uses of the similar designs are known in a variety of contexts ranging from artistic renderings to uses on products. In various countries others have taken steps to protect their particular hand design for use in connection with a variety of products, including items that may be
