Change Of Name

In accordance with paragraph 41(1)(a) of the Trade-marks Act and item 5 of the Tariff of Fees, the Office will amend the register to reflect a trademarks owner's change of name upon receipt of a written request.

The Office will amend a pending trademark application to reflect a change of name of the applicant upon receipt of a written request; no fee is required.

As a general rule, there is no requirement to provide the Office with evidence of a change of name. If the name change is a result of a merger/amalgamation or a change in corporate status, the Office will require some evidence that shows the circumstances in which the name changed (e.g. certificate of merger/amalgamation).
