J&J Ventures
GAMING

November 18, 2019 (Effingham, IL) – J&J Ventures Gaming announced its recent acquisition of Barcade Gaming, LLC. In this transaction, J&J Ventures expanded their gaming operations in northern Illinois by 18 locations and adds to their more than 1,200 licensed gaming locations throughout Illinois.

“We are excited to welcome these locations into the J&J family” said J&J Ventures Gaming CEO, Bob Willenborg. “We value our relationships with our establishment partners and look forward to providing each with the exceptional service and expertise that J&J is known for.”

Leading the industry since 1929, J&J Ventures is celebrating its 90th anniversary this year. “Creating true partnerships is one way we’re moving the gaming experience and industry forward,” said Willenborg. “We have a fantastic team of partner locations and are thrilled to help their businesses succeed. We celebrate that this year.”

90TH ANNIVERSARY GIVEAWAY – COMPLETED!

J&J Ventures, LLC celebrated 90 years in business with a $90K Giveaway! The promotion ran August 28, 2019 – October 31, 2019.

The $90,000 Grand Prize is the LARGEST single prize giveaway in the history of Illinois video gaming! In addition to the grand prize, there were a total of (81) weekly regionalized winners of $72,900 (9 winners of $900 for 9 weeks).

The Giveaway consisted of (9) separate weekly entry periods. Each weekly entry period had (9) winners (1 winner in each of the 9 regions across the state of Illinois). Non-winning entries did not carry forward into subsequent entry periods; however, all non-winning entries were entered into the grand prize drawing of $90,000.

RECENT DONATION

May 22, 2019 (EFFINGHAM, IL) – J&J Ventures Gaming announces a donation of $8,000 to MyMemoryWorx in partnership with the Southeastern Community Foundation.

The donation will fund the development of a new exercise program dedicated to supporting the needs of those with Parkinson’s disease. The initial exercise program, to be held at the Workman Sports Complex, will be a Rock Steady Boxing class and will be available exclusively to those with Parkinson’s. Attendees are not required to be a member of the sports complex to participate in the class.

“On behalf of the Parkinson’s Support Group and the waiting list of 20 people, we want to thank you for bringing this powerful program to our area,” said MyMemoryWorx CEO, Kelly Willenborg.

About MyMemoryWorx

MyMemoryWorx provides memory loss screenings, brain health education, and non-pharmacological interventions particularly focused on those with impairment or a neurological disease.

For more information about MyMemoryWorx, the Parkinson’s support group (named Parkinson’s Institute of Effingham), and the new Parkinson’s exercise program, contact Kelly Willenborg at willenborgkelly@gmail.com or (217) 254-2149.

This privacy policy has been compiled to better serve those who are concerned with how their ‘Personally identifiable information’ (PII) is being used online. PII, as used in US privacy law and information security, is information that can be used on its own or with other information to identify, contact, or locate a single person, or to identify an individual in context. Please read our privacy policy carefully to get a clear understanding of how we collect, use, protect or otherwise handle your Personally Identifiable Information in accordance with our website.

What personal information do we collect from the people that visit our blog, website or app?

When ordering or registering on our site, as appropriate, you may be asked to enter your name, email address, phone number or other details to help you with your experience.

When do we collect information?

We collect information from you when you fill out a form or enter information on our site.

How do we use your information?

We may use the information we collect from you when you register, make a purchase, sign up for our newsletter, respond to a survey or marketing communication, surf the website, or use certain other site features in the following ways:

- To follow up with them after correspondence (live chat, email or phone inquiries)

How do we protect visitor information?

We do not use vulnerability scanning and/or scanning to PCI standards.

We only provide articles and information. We never ask for personal or private information like names, email addresses or credit card numbers.

We use regular Malware Scanning.

We do not use an SSL certificate

- We only provide articles and information. We never ask for personal or private information like names, email addresses, or credit card numbers.

Do we use 'cookies'?

We do not use cookies for tracking purposes

You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies.

You do this through your browser (like Internet Explorer) settings. Each browser is a little different, so look at your browser's Help menu to learn the correct way to modify your cookies.

We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

Google

Google's advertising requirements can be summed up by Google's Advertising Principles. They are put in place to provide a positive experience for users.

<https://support.google.com/adwordspolicy/answer/1316548?hl=en>

We use Google AdSense Advertising on our website.

Google, as a third-party vendor, uses cookies to serve ads on our site. Google's use of the DART cookie enables it to serve ads to our users based on previous visits to our site and other sites on the Internet. Users may opt-out of the use of the DART cookie by visiting the Google Ad and Content Network privacy policy.

We have implemented the following:

- Demographics and Interests Reporting

We along with third-party vendors, such as Google use first-party cookies (such as the Google Analytics cookies) and third-party cookies (such as the DoubleClick cookie) or other third-party identifiers together to compile data regarding user interactions with ad impressions and other ad service functions as they relate to our website.

Opting out:

Users can set preferences for how Google advertises to you using the Google Ad Settings page. Alternatively, you can opt out by visiting the Network Advertising initiative opt out page or permanently using the Google Analytics Opt Out Browser add on.

California Online Privacy Protection Act

CalOPPA is the first state law in the nation to require commercial websites and online services to post a privacy policy. The law's reach stretches well beyond California to require a person or company in the United States (and conceivably the world) that operates websites collecting personally identifiable information from California consumers to post a conspicuous privacy policy on its website stating exactly the information being collected and those individuals with whom it is being shared, and to comply with this policy. – See more at: <http://consumercal.org/california-online-privacy-protection-act-caloppa/#sthash.0FdRbT51.dpuf>

According to CalOPPA we agree to the following:

Users can visit our site anonymously.

Once this privacy policy is created, we will add a link to it on our home page or as a minimum on the first significant page after entering our website.

Our Privacy Policy link includes the word 'Privacy' and can be easily be found on the page specified above.

Users will be notified of any privacy policy changes:

- On our Privacy Policy Page

Users are able to change their personal information:

- By emailing us
- By calling us

How does our site handle do not track signals?

We honor do not track signals and do not track, plant cookies, or use advertising when a Do Not Track (DNT) browser mechanism is in place.

Does our site allow third-party behavioral tracking?

It's also important to note that we do not allow third-party behavioral tracking

COPPA (Children Online Privacy Protection Act)

When it comes to the collection of personal information from children under 13, the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) puts parents in control. The Federal Trade Commission, the nation's consumer protection agency, enforces the COPPA Rule, which spells out what operators of websites and online services must do to protect children's privacy and safety online.

We do not specifically market to children under 13.

Fair Information Practices

The Fair Information Practices Principles form the backbone of privacy law in the United States and the concepts they include have played a significant role in the development of data protection laws around the globe. Understanding the Fair Information Practice Principles and how they should be implemented is critical to comply with the various privacy laws that protect personal information.

In order to be in line with Fair Information Practices we will take the following responsive action, should a data breach occur:

We will notify the users via email

- Within 7 business days

We also agree to the Individual Redress Principle, which requires that individuals have a right to pursue legally enforceable rights against data collectors and processors who fail to adhere to the law. This principle requires not only that individuals have enforceable rights against data users, but also that individuals have recourse to courts or government agencies to investigate and/or prosecute non-compliance by data processors.

CAN SPAM Act

The CAN-SPAM Act is a law that sets the rules for commercial email, establishes requirements for commercial messages, gives recipients the right to have emails stopped from being sent to them, and spells out tough penalties for violations.

We collect your email address in order to:

- Send information, respond to inquiries, and/or other requests or questions.

To be in accordance with CANSPAM we agree to the following:

- NOT use false or misleading subjects or email addresses.
- Identify the message as an advertisement in some reasonable way.
- Include the physical address of our business or site headquarters.

- Monitor third-party email marketing services for compliance, if one is used.
- Honor opt-out/unsubscribe requests quickly.
- Allow users to unsubscribe by using the link at the bottom of each email.

If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, you can email us at

- Follow the instructions at the bottom of each email.
