International Trade Consulting Services

With the help of our international trade consulting services, there's almost no limit to where your business can go.

At Mohawk Global Trade Advisors, our team is in the business of equipping yours to handle almost any challenge in import/export trade compliance and supply chain management. To achieve this, we provide an array of consulting and training services, all rooted in years of real-world, day-to-day experience held by our advisors.

MGTA focuses on helping you maximize the capabilities of your supply chain management and compliance personnel through offerings including:

- CTPAT certification
- Export compliance consulting
- Import compliance consulting
- Supply chain management (including supply chain security)
- Free trade agreements, including effective use of NAFTA
- Customized training in logistics, supply chain and trade compliance

Whether it's navigating international trade regulations or streamlining your supply chain, you can turn to MGTA for the services you need to make sure nothing stands in your way.
