Description

le, and highly functional, the EVO Spearfishing Knife provides the drive and accuracy needed to subdue your catch. An ergonomically shaped handle is easy to grip, designed to eliminate the chance of Spearfishing Knife features a stainless steel blade shaped for subduing fish. The comfort-grip handle is easy to hold, and the spearfishing knife fits nicely into the included knife sheath. A locking mechanism on the sheath prevents accidental deployment, without making it difficult to take the knife out of its sheath when you need it most.
