The Jumpstart Story

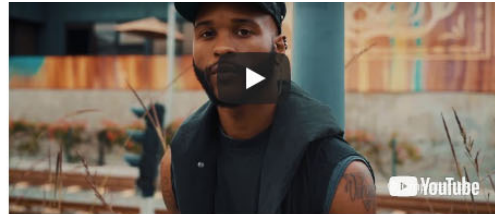

When we came out of school there were no good jobs available. We took part time work that didn't pay enough so we used credit cards just to live. We had a hard time paying our student loans on time, if we were able to pay them at all.

No matter how much the economy improved, we still can't move ahead. Our credit scores kept dropping lower. Sometimes it feels like we'll carry this baggage for the rest of our lives.

This was not our fault and we did our best to deal with a bad situation. But now its time to move forward. We launched Jumpstart as an easy and affordable way to eliminate your debt.
