Product description

Flavor: Variety Pack | Size: 25 Packs

Fluid Tactical's solution starts with a complete mineral profile, that actually replaces what we lose in sweat! Including calcium & magnesium, a pinch of real cane sugar, and natural flavors, each packet of Fluid Tactical turns 16oz of water into great tasting electrolyte mix that just works better.

- ✓ REPLACES ALL VITAL ELECTROLYTES AT THE SAME RATIOS THEY ARE LOST IN SWEAT
- ✓ LOW SUGAR ALLOWS FOR ADVANTAGEOUS ABSORPTION WHILE MINIMIZING EMPTY CALORIES.

- ✓ BALANCE OF MINERALS HELPS THE PREVENTION & TREATMENT OF MUSCLE CRAMPS FROM DEHYDRATION.
- ✓ NO ARTIFICIAL COLORS, FLAVORS, OR PRESERVATIVES.

- Question: Does this contain stevia?

Answer: No it does not. It contains pure cane sugar. Replenishes what the body already produces. Best stuff we have found for my daughter while she competes in heat!!

- Question: Why do you say no artificial sweeteners when there is sucralose in it?

Answer: They claim the same as dripdrop, "no artificial colors, flavors, or preservatives". Neither claim no sweetener. I called the company and they say they use a very small amount, 6mg or 0.5% of the recommended upper dietary intake (UDI) per day.

★★★★★ LOVE this product

LOVE this product. I've used them for long hikes, post runs, and even for hangover (big bonus)! They taste amazing and I definitely notice a difference. You don't get that gross sugary after taste like Gatorade. I'm a fitness trainer and youth soccer coach, and I have my players/athletes take these at tournaments in between games. They love them and it, absolutely, keeps them hydrated and performing better. Would highly recommended for the elite athlete or average Joe. Worth the money!

Excellent value! I've been buying hydration tabs and packets for a while now and these are 1/4 of the price. It's much easier on your wallet and comparable quality to the best stuff out there. Simple math would equate that these are the best stuff on the market. So far all of the flavors I have tried have been great. Orange tastes like a creamsicle so that's my favorite so far.

Being a wildland firefighter, hydration is paramount to survive on the fire line. I found that Fluid Tactical hydration is the best way to maintain proper levels of electrolytes and while also getting other needed minerals not found in most other sport drinks. The little packets are easy to carry and don't take up much space in the pack. Other than the good/mild flavor of fluid, I like that its not sugary and doesn't leave that sticky feeling in my mouth like Gatorade.

Highly recommend Fluid for anyone who is active, sweats a lot and needs something beyond just water to maintain performance levels. Quality flavors but Im always a lemon-lime kind of guy

★★★★★ Hydration help that works!

June 17, 2019

Flavor: Variety Pack | Size: 25 Packs | Verified Purchase

I struggle with staying hydrated on a daily basis and have been looking at other products to help before finding this Tactical Hydration Powder. I am really impressed with the flavors and performance of this powder at this price point versus the others on the market. Sure, all the flavors aren't my cup of tea, but let me tell you, when you know it's a water supplement that will ultimately help you, I don't really care what it tastes like.

I use this at work mostly because I work in an environment with temperature fluctuations that has me moving around all the time. Overall I have focused on increasing my water intake, but this is my little insurance on those exceptionally hot or challenging days. I am glad I decided to go on a bi-monthly subscription from the beginning because just as I am running out I get more.

★★★★★ Felt great all week

August 9, 2019

Flavor: Variety Pack | Size: 25 Packs | Verified Purchase

I bought the multi flavor pack. I sit all day at work and was tired all the time. Recovering from a DVT and PE's that isn't good. My ankles were swelling. I wasn't drinking enough. I drink one a day. My water consumption is going up. So my energy level is going up.

I am not a Fruit Punch fan and I am still not. Although the flavor isn't horrendous it isn't my cup of tea. I can chug it pretty fast though.

Grape wasn't bad either. Tasted like grape and no after taste.

Wild Berry tasted like cotton candy.

I will probably stay with the low sodium flavors since I chug the glass of water. Refill that glass and drink it fast too.

Thank you for a great product.

★★★★☆ Fine, but I prefer other brands

June 7, 2018

Flavor: Variety Pack | Size: 25 Packs | Verified Purchase

I tried these for the first time today. I've been using the Emergen-C Hydration brand previously. This one does not dissolve as well, and the taste was quite weak in comparison. I'll try it with less water next time. Also, it says "low sodium" on the packets, which isn't in the Amazon description. Don't I need sodium? Why would I want a low sodium electrolyte replacement? And they're expensive.

★★★★★ Portable Fluid - Yeal

May 2, 2018

Flavor: Variety Pack | Size: 25 Packs | Verified Purchase

I've been a fan of the Fluid product for years so these are no different - tastes great, high quality ingredients, replaces minerals and electrolytes, keeps your body hydrated and in balance. But what I love with this Tactical product is that my Fluid is now portable! I used to put it in baggies for day trips, overnight trips, etc so I'm stoked to have these portable packets now. Love it and will be buying more soon.
