Monthly CourtSmart Publication

These publications include current case law analysis and how it directly affects Illinois officers. We will explain the implications of each case, how they should be interpreted, and how you, as officers can handle tough situations while being both "Street Smart" AND "CourtSmart".

In addition to the monthly publication, your department will also have access to all previous CourtSmart publications upon subscribing. See a sample publication here

Monthly CourtSmart Exams

Officers will take monthly exams to determine that they have read and understood the material. Supervisors can also get access to all of the officer's exams.
