FAQ > Applications & other Services > Besides funding, do you provide any other value for traders?

Sure we do! All of us at FTMO are traders too and we know the needs of our clients based on our own experiences. We constantly develop new features, tools, applications and education content for our traders. Following are some of the highlights that make us proud of what we do:

- Statistical application - The Statistical Application will show you meaningful and number-based probabilities of market behaviour that you can use to your advantage.
- Mentor application - The Mentor Application is a unique application that helps traders to achieve better results through strengthening their discipline.
- Trading journal - Archiving trading results is not one of the favourite activities of most traders, but it is a piece of cake with our Trading Journal.
- Account MetriX - The Account MetriX is an innovative and unique web application where you can monitor your progress towards becoming the FTMO Trader.
- Account analysis - When we decided to create this project, we knew we have to offer our traders an unbiased look at their trading results.
- Broker review - The perfect comparison feature that is constantly monitoring the performance of different account types of our brokers.
- Performance psychologist - Often ignored, yet extremely crucial aspect of trading, is the trader's psychology. We offer support here as well.
- Equity simulator - Improve your risk management and calculate your probabilities and chances based on your current trading performance. Available in your Account MetriX.
