

Standard Industries is a privately-held, global, diversified holding company with interests in building materials and aggregates, and affiliated investment businesses in public equities and real estate. With over 7,500 employees and operations in more than 80 countries, Standard maintains a team-oriented culture of meritocracy, excellence, intellectual honesty, and a passionate focus on investing in its people.

