

Categories of Grants

Development Grants

Provide early support to propel projects forward that hold the promise of a unique story that should be told in film. No reel is required at this stage, but a few scenes, trailers and previous sample work are required.

Production Grants

Provide support to projects with 10+ minutes of material. Previous sample work is required.

Audience Engagement & Impact Campaigns

Provide support to campaigns that activate audiences and strategic stakeholders around the film toward a specific goal.

Support Grants

Provide support for subjects and victims involved in the production of the documentaries. Examples of these grants include: Public speaking skills/coaching; convening opportunities; advocacy activities support; legal support and psychosocial therapy for subjects, victims and survivors, etc.