

Legal Software for Law Firms in New Jersey, New York, and Massachusetts

As a legal case and practice management system, LEAP improves New Jersey, New York, and Massachusetts law firms' efficiency, productivity and profitability. Law firms globally have relied on LEAP's case management system since 1992 for innovative legal software to manage and store all their client and matter related information in one electronic file.

