TRADE MARK REGISTRATION DOCUMENT

Intellectual Property Act – Book VII

Art. L. 712-1.- Ownership of the trade mark is obtained by registering the name. The trade mark can be co-owned.

The entry comes into effect as from the date the request has been filed for a period of ten years and indefinitely renewable.

Art. R. 714-2 – The national trade mark register is managed by the national institute for industrial property. For every trade mark, the following is recorded in this register:

1. The identification of the applicant and the filing details, as well as previous acts affecting the existence or the scope
2. The acts modifying the ownership of the trade mark or the enjoyment of the associated rights; in case of proprietary claim, the corresponding assignment;
3. The name change, change of legal form or address as well as the rectifications of material errors that affect the entries.

Entries cannot be recorded in the register as long as the submission has not been published under the conditions established in article R. 712-8.

Art. R. 714-8 – Every entry in the national trade mark register shall be mentioned in the Official Gazette of industrial property.

Any interested party can obtain the following from the institute:

1. An extract from the trade mark journal stating the trade mark model, the specifications regarding the submission and the registration and, if applicable, the restrictions of the list of goods or services following a withdrawal, a waiver or a legal decision;
2. A copy of the entries in the national trade mark register;
3. A certificate confirming that no entry exists.
