Railway Bridge

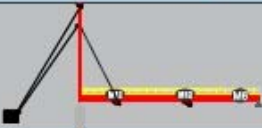

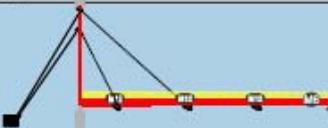

BRIDGEMASTER is the first modular, demountable bridge system specifically designed to support the extremely heavy loads of Cooper E-80 locomotives and others, to be assembled as a simply supported bridge, as a cable stayed bridge and as a suspended bridge (Not shown), from interchangeable modules and prestressed bars or cables that can be reused or reassembled in many different ways.

Cooper E-80 Locomotive

- BRIDGEMASTER, Complies with AREMA and most International standards of railway bridges design.
- Single or multi-rail traffic are allowed.

Abnormal and oversized loads

- BRIDGEMASTER is the most reliable and fast to be installed option for abnormal and oversized loads.

Buy or rent

BRIDGEMASTER is available for purchase or rent internationally.

- Buying a BRIDGEMASTER is an excellent investment because we cover a wide range of solutions at unchallenged prices. Furthermore, because its designed life span and the possibility of reusing its parts under hundreds of different configurations and uses, BRIDGEMASTER has very important residual value and a second hand market.
- Renting a BRIDGEMASTER can maximize the cash flow of your operation as well as provide taxation benefits regarding the possibility of deducting monies paid for rent, transportation assembling and dissembling as deductible expenses.

Professional assistance

Our knowledge and experience at your service.

- We at BRIDGEMASTER count with millions of man hours of experience in designing, building, mounting, demounting and anticipating the extremely complicated environment surrounding bridges.
- We provide contracting companies for assembling and dissembling processes.
- We can also assist your contractors in these processes
- We are ready to help you to take an informed decision, to evaluate the different options and to bring your project to success.
