Frequently Asked Questions

How many fonts are included? Can I use them all?

Mosaic customers have full access to experiment with Monotype's library of 13,000 fonts on any project they're working on (including those in global languages and markets). You can also choose from a variety of different licensing options that enable distribution/production rights across multiple use cases & channels. You can

Is it easy to get set up and working? And what about single sign-on systems (SSO)?

Yes to both. Mosaic is a simple, customizable cloud-based service your team can access from anywhere in the world. It's compatible with single sign-on systems (SSO), which reduces the need for heavy lifting from your IT team. Most enterprise customers can go live within a few weeks.

also organize and share fonts with internal and external stakeholders through lists, projects, or groups based on style, project, mood, or however you see fit.

Which font licenses are included? Can I use them in print, on my website, or in a digital ad?

Yes, yes, and yes! Our licensing structure allows you to license and use fonts across virtually any consumer touchpoint, including electronic and printed materials, ebooks, mobile & AR/VR apps, email marketing and digital ads, websites, servers, and more. We'll review your current and future needs, then work with you to develop a comprehensive licensing structure.

How many people at my company can access the library?

Mosaic starts at 10 seats and scales to meet the needs of your organization. We will work with you to determine the number of user seats on your subscription, and you can always remove or add new users when necessary. You can also assign seats to your external partners and agencies.

What happens after I become a customer? How often will I hear from Monotype?

We'll keep you informed via email communication of any major updates or changes to our service. We will also update our font software as customer preferences change and new opportunities arise. You can expect Mosaic to grow with you, so you can feel prepared for whatever lies ahead. We're constantly adding new fonts and font collections and sharing engaging thought leadership content within the service too.
