Is ONPOINT the right fit for you?

If you find yourself challenged by any of the following scenarios, ONPOINT can help:

- ✓ There is a talent gap within your team. Although you have bright people working with you, no one is certain how to enhance and optimize your Micro Focus investment.

- ✓ You don't have the bandwidth on your team or you've recently lost your Micro Focus expert, and you're unable to backfill the position to your satisfaction.

- ✓ Your Micro Focus tools are up and running, but all the consultants have left and you wish to avoid the sizable cost of outsourcing or acquiring large sums of professional services hours to continue to mature your investment.
