Beth Moore - Speaker

Travis Cottrell - Worship Leader

"This was our first year doing a simulcast. I felt the material about the planning was great, the facebook page that allowed sharing of ideas was fantastic!! As a working person I appreciated the ability to watch the pre-host casts on my schedule. Very well done!!"

Barbara Brown
South Charleston, WV

"It was a wonderful event and God was here in every detail. It was such a joy to see 200 women praising God on our end along with the thousands around the world. Beth is such a woman of God and it is evident in her teaching." - Wendy Martin, Creekside Church, Waterloo, ON, Canada

"Being a small rural congregation, this is a great way for us to offer a quality event to the women in our church and surrounding area." - Carolyn May, Trinity Baptist Church, Longview, TX

"Breaking denominational barriers in our small city of Kingsville is bringing unity to sisters in Christ and making a greater impact for Him! Relationships are being formed and women are joining non-denominational ministry opportunities such as Community Prayer Revival, Women's Bible studies etc. This is our 8th year to host at FBC Kingsville, and it has been amazing to watch God work through this event!" - Rhonda Mathis, First Baptist Kingsville, Kingsville, TX

"This was life changing and so Driven by the Holy spirit. It was amazing how he had his hand in every minute detail of the organization and the actual event itself. Everyone who attended had stated that they were overwhelmed with this event and it's impact. I would love to do this again at our church if we are able and God willing. Thank you for all your support!!!" - Marilyn Hickey, Grace Pointe, Plainfield, IL

"We are in upstate South Carolina. Hurricane Florence sent lots of rain and high winds the day of the event. In spite of the weather there were 48 Women there. There were several coastal evacuees and woman from across the state in attendance that literally weathered the storm together. We wept, hugged and praised the Amazing God that we serve. All in attendance will be back and we will host again many years to come." - Tracy Palmer, Reidville Road United Methodist, Spartanburg, SC

"The women's ministry putting this event together was a small team and it took us a lot of work. It would not have been possible without the tools and communication shared through the event site. We were grateful for those. This helped us to share the event, provide promotional materials, and easily print the resources needed. We were thrilled with the organization of it all, the host webcast which gave us information on what to expect, and allowed us to see into the heart of the ministry and Beth's heart so we could pray for specifics. The ladies that attended seemed to enjoy the music, message, and the ability to attend so close to home. We loved our first simulcast opportunity and hope to have more in the future." - Brian George, River Oaks Community Church, Murfreesboro, TN

"This event was such a blessing to the ladies who attended. The whole church was abuzz the following Sunday and felt energized by such a powerful day of worship and teaching. We were so grateful for the relationships that were developed as we planned, the unity we experienced, and prayers that were answered over and over!" - Amanda Kirk, Calvary Baptist Church, Lynchburg, VA
