

We create fun and engaging content with non-profits and charities to spread a positive message and raise awareness for local organizations. Our goal is to inspire others to serve and volunteer within their local community because we believe small efforts can create a BIG impact!

Put on your Charity Pants, do a little good for the world, then take your pants off!

Charity Pants is not a non-profit. We simply want to create content with a positive message. help spread awareness and give back to the community.
