

Political Rewind

GPB STATEWIDE AND GPB ATLANTA MONDAY THROUGH WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY AT 2 P.M.

HOSTED BY BILL NIGUT

 POLITICAL REWIND

The political game in Georgia is more dynamic than ever. From local elected officials to state and federal government, we're facing complicated issues. On "Political Rewind" we take the time four days a week to break down these issues, speaking directly to the decision makers in a respectful and civil manner. We not only get you caught up on what has happened in this fast-changing political world, we look ahead so that you will know what to expect. Tune in on GPB or watch via Facebook Live every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

CLICK HERE for live video stream

Click to register for Political Rewind live in Athens:

WAYS TO CONNECT

podcast

rss

twitter

Political Rewind: Lawmakers Give Kemp Power To Create Medicaid Waiver

By BILL NIGUT · 6 MINUTES AGO

STEPHEN FOWLER / GPB

On this edition of Political Rewind, Gov. Brian Kemp wins a major victory in the legislature, it is now up to him to propose waivers for what he says would be a limited expansion of Medicaid and to offer subsidies to those who buy insurance through Obamacare. Republicans hail it as a major step to providing coverage to many more Georgians. Democrats say his proposals don't go far enough.

Political Rewind: Abortion Debate Continues During Final Week of State Legislature

By BILL NIGUT · MAR 25, 2019

On this edition of Political Rewind, with five days remaining in the 2019 session, the state Senate paves the way for enactment of one of the most controversial bills in modern Georgia history – the measure that would all but outlaw abortion in our state. our panel looks at what comes next.