GENERAL OVERVIEW – COLLECTOR CAR INVESTING

SECURITY WITH F7 ADVISING

With today's investment environment making it increasingly difficult to build true diversification into investment portfolios, many prudent investors dedicate a portion of their portfolios to real assets. These hard assets such as real estate, artwork and classic automobiles serve, not only as a credible store of wealth but, also provide a measure of utility and personal gratification that other investments do not. This visceral appeal however, makes it more important for investors to seek independent, professional guidance to avoid irrational bias and costly mistakes.

F7 MOTORSPORTS AS YOUR ADVISOR

For more than 35 years, the Corsa 7, including Corsa 7 and the Corsa 7 Garage, have been collecting, restoring, displaying, racing, buying and selling some of the finest and rarest automobiles on the planet including Ferrari, Porsche, Aston Martin and AMG/Mercedes. Our Corsa 7 Auto Advisors team is an asset advisory service which will facilitate the selection, acquisition and management of rare, collectible, exotic and ultra-luxury motorcars for you.

Our advisors allow the customer to tap into F7 Motorsports vast collector car experience, with hundreds of years of combined knowledge and thousands of contacts, resources and relationships. We regularly work in unison with client's attorneys, accountants, bankers and other advisors to deliver a truly informed investment decision.
