Organizations in the top quartile for gender diversity are more likely to have higher financial returns, yet women account for fewer than 22% of employees in the oil and gas sector. Read more from PWS executive team member Ariana Carruth as she discusses women leading oil & gas: why it matters & how PWS represents the future of the industry.

Pure Well Solutions Announces US Subsidiary & US Manufacturing Operation

Houston, TX – (February 25, 2020) – Pure Well Solutions (“PWS”) has announced an expansion of its global footprint into the US market with the formation of a US subsidiary and US manufacturing site based in Houston, TX.

“Our expansion into the US market enables PWS to deliver our premium sustainable oilfield products and services into a greater marketplace that is exceedingly in need of sustainable development vehicles that address the oil & gas industry’s impact to the environment,” stated Ariana Carruth, Managing Director – Americas.

With an approach rooted in the principles of circular economy, PWS will manufacture its patent-pending energy
