

Working Together
in Challenging Times.

*That's Proof.*TM

Manage Your Orders Online and Get Timely Help From Your Sales Consultant.

Proof is especially valuable right now.

As the COVID-19 pandemic has forced our customers to evolve their businesses, many have found that continued communication with their sales consultants along with digital inventory management through the Proof eCommerce platform has been vital. Proof offers you immediate 24/7 access to your orders, deals, invoice history and updated contact information for your SGWS team. You can even create new orders from the safety of your computer, as you observe critical social distancing precautions.

For industry-relevant COVID-19 updates, visit sgwscustomer care.com.
