

Welcome to Yummy Dental & Orthodontics

Pediatric Dentistry & Orthodontics In Glenview & Chicago

The health and well being of their child will always be the number one priority of any concerned parent; and an important part of this includes the dental health of their child's teeth. By keeping your child's teeth strong and healthy, you can instill great habits that will follow them into the future and help prevent unwanted dental conditions later on in their life. Here at Yummy Dental and Orthodontics, we take care of your child's dental health and assist in these areas to give them a beautiful, straight, and healthy smile. While we do have locations in Glenview and Chicago, we also proudly serve families in surrounding communities like Lincoln Park, Lakeview, Roscoe Village, Highland Park, and many more!

Why Choose Yummy Dental & Orthodontics?

Our Child Friendly Dental Team

Too many children are afraid of dentists and orthodontists. Whether it was a bad past experience, or simply a fear of cavities, we are here to help. Dr. Yum and her fantastic team of dentists and orthodontists have had considerable experience easing these fears that children face when at a dental office. When you receive treatment with us, you can rest easy knowing your child is in the friendliest and kindest hands available.

Our Expert Knowledge in Orthodontics & Pediatric Dentistry

As an expert in the field of dentistry, Dr. Yum has appeared numerous times on television programs like Chicago NBC, and through these media appearances, she has solidified herself as one of the foremost leading authorities on children's dental health. We have also been featured in articles for Parents Magazine, and Parenting Magazine as certified dentists who are experts in the field of children's dentistry and orthodontics.

We Treat Adults Too!

While it is not extremely well known, we would like parents to know that they are welcome in our dental chairs anytime they would like. It is this convenience at Yummy Dental & Orthodontics that helps to make it a perfect family dentistry practice.
