

We're committed to meeting your cleaning needs.

Introducing The Pivot Advantage

While many companies simply talk about quality, Pivot's business model is built totally around its focus on providing reliable quality with integrity. The Pivot Quality System utilizes people, processes and technology to deliver superior service and meet customer needs.

The Pivot Advantage translates to added value for our customers.

“ We've been a customer of Pivot for over a decade. They make every effort to satisfy our needs. Not only do they provide professional service but they also have a well-trained and knowledgeable staff. Their follow through after a cleaning to insure that we are satisfied is definitely a step above and beyond.
