OPERATION BREAKFAST

ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT COFFEE VANILLA STOUT

9.1%
ALC BY VOL

You woke up at noon and the motel breakfast buffet is already over. But don't cry into your bacon just yet, this beer is packed with everything you missed. We gave ourselves a singular mission— brew a stout with all the roasted malt flavor you expect from a waffle maker, plus the huge coffee and vanilla flavor of a cafe latte. Well, mission accomplished. Trust us, it's the best thing to happen since toasted sliced bread. So keep your PJs on, get a few extra hours of sleep, and set your alarm for happy hour. Operation Breakfast has arrived.
