Jobsite Delivery

Golden State Lumber is proud to offer next-business-day delivery on most items in our inventory so you'll never get behind on a job waiting for your materials to arrive. Our expert drivers handle your materials with care, and drive in any conditions to deliver on time. Trucks with piggyback forklifts are also available for when you need to quickly and safely unload large goods. With 100 trucks in our fleet, you'll never have to wait long. We're on your schedule.
