

+ Product Certifications

ICS Laboratories, Inc. is committed to providing efficient and effective certification services for personal protective equipment (PPE) manufacturers and developers. We frequently work with our clients throughout the entire product design, development and release cycle, offering insights into the best certification schemes, managing timelines and ensuring timely finalization of certification projects.

View Our Certifications

What We Do

ICS Laboratories, Inc. was established in 1995 to provide testing and conformity assessment services for Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and related devices. We are the leading independent laboratory in North America for PPE and one of the foremost in the world. ICS provides specialized, experienced testing of protective equipment for Eye and Face Protection, Helmet / Head Protection, Athletic Equipment, Respiratory Protection, Biological and Chemical Protective Clothing. As a specialist facility, our