

Company

Starblast Corporation

Founded in Solana Beach, California. Starblast offers logistic and support services to help simplify mission-essential roles. Our company takes pride in working with the government to complete each requirement. We provide 24/7 customer support and emergency services.

Ethos

Progressive

Starblast is a prime contractor with a people-centric culture. Our company is privately held and veteran-owned and operated. We operate globally and deliver what we promise.

Responsible

Starblast created a diverse workplace that accepts people of all races, genders, religions, and backgrounds. We implemented a greenhouse policy to cultivate sustainability and reduce our carbon footprint. Our company culture is based on respect for humanity and the world.

Innovative

Applied-science will become a standard for future developments. Starblast explores different business approaches to maximize time, reduce costs, and facilitate operations. We blend emotional intelligence with automation in day-to-day operations.
