Epic Quest

Playing the Apocalypse

750 xp in collaboration and presentation

In this climate quest, you will be playing the pre-alpha edition of a new tabletop roleplaying game called "Heartwood" (for 4-5 players), and submitting your gameplay session as a video or podcast. Play the game with your team (4 Players and 1 Game Warden), or schedule a 2-4 hour game slot with your team over Discord, to be DM'd by India Weston, the game's developer. If only part of your team is free, you can join another team for a session to split the pool of points in half.

To sign up for a game session with your team over Discord, email HeartwoodRPG@gmail.com with your team's schedule. (Limited availability.)

What to submit

- First and Last Name
- Team Name (No worries if you don't have one)
- Submit your certificate of completion

Up to 200 additional points may be earned by submitting playtest notes that answer the following questions:

- What were your impressions going into the game?
- What resonated with you about the game and why?
- What was your favorite part of the game and why?
- What was something unexpected that happened during the game?
- What didn't work for you about the game?
- How do you think the game could be improved?
