Second only to OJ
It is a great hot or room temperature depending on how much you nurse your tea. I haven't tried it cold, but its a great taste of citrus. I'd recommend making it strong over adding more sugar.

Refreshing and Citrusy
I bought this flavor as a pitcher pack in-store about a year ago and loved it so much. When I started looking at tea for an afternoon pick-me-up while working from home, I immediately added this one to my cart. It's as good as I remember. It leaves a nice after taste and is amazing hot or iced. The orange and lemon flavor with a lovingly hug from the pineapple and a sweet kiss of hibiscus boost the pleasant to exceptional.

Wonderful
Long time tea drinker, new to David's - I bought a few varieties to try and this is hands down my favorite, back to buy 10oz of it. I've only had it iced thus far (it's June in Phoenix. Hot tea isn't on the menu lol) and i just can't say enough. All I can compare it to is fresh orangeade - It's not sweet-leaning, not tart-leaning. It's perfectly balanced and hovers right in the middle. If you like fresh oranges this is a must try

Yummy Sunny C!
Sunny C is one of the best teas ever! I drink it iced, so not sure about hot (although I'm sure it's good) and it is one of my favorites. The smell and taste really are like fresh squeezed oranges. I will definitely be reordering!

Delicious citrus flavors
I bought 4oz of this tea after reading the reviews, and I should've bought more! It's delicious and unbelievably hydrating. I drank mine hot, but I can tell it would also be great iced. Packs a powerful punch!

Can't keep enough of this in the house...I'm ALWAYS out. I make it iced in pitchers. EVERY DAY. So yummy and healthy for the whole family. (I do add a splash of lemon, and stevia to each pitcher.)

Lots of love
Love, love, love this tea. So flavorful I wish it came in teabags as well as loose, so that I can take it with me in my travel mug.
