UPDATE 4

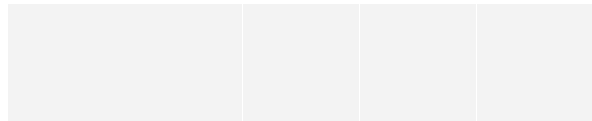

Updating to 3 stars

They must have pushed new firmware or updated the app. The vac now leaves the dock straight (it used to always leave and then spin to about 200 degrees so it always started cleaning on an angle) Room mapping now works. If you select all the rooms, it cleans one at a time FULLY before going to the next. It now finds the dock fine and is no longer just going in circles and pausing. Its still VERY loud hence the 3 stars. I'll keep updating as time goes on.

UPDATE 3
 Reducing it to one star. I was able to capture a video of it just going in circles and ramming itself into the dock. You can hear how LOUD it

Okay, in video it had mapped 22% or around there after 20 runs, now at 30 runs and 29% mapped. I tried cleaning the sensors and it seemed to do a tiny bit better but like today it cleaned for 20 minutes, had 80% battery left and returned to the dock, cleaned the bin which was barely full. As I said in the video, it has no method to its madness as it will literally go over our kitchen which is very clean at least 5 times in a cleaning. It wastes so much time on the same area. I'm not very impressed with it and if you're thinking ★★★★★ Great Vacuum Robot on the market!

Reviewed in the United States on October 21, 2019

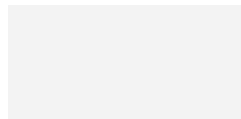

Verified Purchase

Overall, I think this robot is one of the most competitive model on the market.

1. The vacuum is really powerful. I have one robot from other company. It can collect pets' hair and dust in one time running, even from carpet. I have a dog and a cat. IQ R101 will clean all their hair and I don't need to worry about the allergy stuff. Now I'm really in to it and need to run the clean process every day! It saved me a lot of cleaning time.
2. The vacuum is really smart. The first time it goes through the whole process around 1.5 hour in our entire house.(3b/1b). The time and routing system will get improved every time. After several times, it will improve to need less than one hour. The route pattern gets better significantly. It will bypass the cables and furnitures automatically.
3. Mobile app enabled. This mobile app is extremely useful while using vacuum robots. It can help you with start/stop cleaning process; locate your vacuum; display the stats for the robot like battery percentage; schedule the clean process and even buying accessories like filter.

Dislike: the noise with this robot is slightly louder than competitor. However, they are at about

★★★★★ So happy

Reviewed in the United States on December 12, 2019

I have used Sharky (my name for this) two times now. I have a large home 2000 sq ft. My little robot went in a planned pattern cleaning every inch of flooring along the way. I have a very thick plush shag 9x12 rug with a pad under it, I was afraid that sharky would not be able to clean it. Boy was I wrong this little shark climbed right up on it and cleaning every inch. VERY IMPRESSIVE, it goes around chair legs, under our couch getting all of the dust bunnies. I thought my hardwood would not be as clean as this gets it. I love my shark robot. It also has a large dust bin, surprising to see what all collects from the rugs by the front and back doors. So glad that I went with a Shark.

★★★★★ Recommend! Nice vacuum robot.

Reviewed in the United States on October 21, 2019

This vacuum robot works really well in my home. It has an app on my phone, which I can remote control easily. The robot will generate a map of your home after several cleanings. And after that, you can direct it to clean specific part of your home. It haven't stuck anywhere in my home yet. I have two vacuum robots, this one definitely wins over the other brand. Anyway, I recommend it.
