

What We Do

Data Center Consultancy

we help you

Our service through partnering and consultancy will help you create a world that unleashes emerging technologies that will improve the lives of everyone around the world!

Our team is the elite in the industry. With over 44 years of combined experience, we're led by the best who have experience in overseeing hundreds of millions to execute successful deployments and create massive shifts to move the data industry forward. Our strategies and execution is second to none, with not only bringing new players into the industry, but maximizing margin lines for the most cost effective and solution oriented approach available.

Owner Representation

We Take Over

We've built for 43 companies in 9 countries with 2.5 billion in CAPEX deployed, and have built out over 3 million data center square feet.

When you need a team to parachute in, diagnose and take over, we will simply get the job done. We have the know-how and experience to help bring you into the industry and help you become a formidable player no matter how little or small you intend your footprint to be.

How Can We Help?

Whether you are an organization in need of representation or consultation, or seeking to be a part of the OVERWATCH Team, we want to hear from you.

We are here when the mission is critical.
