UPCOMING EXHIBITIONS

ATOMIC NUMBER THIRTEEN: ALUMINUM IN 20TH-CENTURY DESIGN

on view starting April 23rd, 2021

When chemists first successfully extracted aluminum from the earth in the mid-19th century, the raw element was as precious as gold. Today we take this ubiquitous material for granted, though aluminum allows for nearly every facet of modern life through its use in architecture, industry, and flight. This exhibition, drawn from NOMA's permanent collection, explores the changing role of aluminum in twentieth-century design. READ MORE

FESTIVALS

New Orleans is a city with a joie de vivre unmatched in the world. The range of celebrations at NOMA includes India Fest, Japan Fest, French Bastille Day, and a Scottish-themed party in honor of poet Robert Burns. Seasonal family festivals are also held in both the museum and the Besthoff Sculpture Garden.

FILMS

From classic films of yesteryear and Hollywood blockbusters to cutting-edge documentaries, international movies, and experimental artistic shorts, NOMA regularly schedules screenings in conjunction with exhibitions and special events.

GALLERY TALKS

Gallery talks are casual conversations between artists, curators, and other special guests with NOMA visitors frequently scheduled throughout the year. Tours of collection highlights and exhibitions are held daily at 1 pm, and guides lead visitors through the Besthoff Sculpture Garden at noon on Fridays, Saturdays, and Mondays at noon. View the calendar listings for details.

LECTURES AND PANELS

As a cultural convener, NOMA brings artists and scholars together to engage in conversations with the public.

PERFORMANCES

From jazz, classical and country to ballet, fashion shows, and folk dances, the performing arts blend with the visual arts at NOMA. In partnership with The NOLA Project, indoor and outdoor theater productions are staged throughout the year.
