Had a baby

Coco on Jan 21, 2021

So I had a baby April 2020. Y'all I was on cloud 9 excited to have my new baby girl. Until my edges start falling out. So I asked my doctor what was going on. He said postpartum depression affect woman in different ways. So you talking about a woman's confidence being high to feeling low. I saw this product in the store and yes I tried it yes it works! my edges are growing baby!!(snap fingers) love this product.

The best hands down

Terra Anderson (ig:@thetionniewhow_) on Nov 01, 2019

Me and my daughter tionnie (ig:@thetionniewhow_) have been using kaleidoscope hair products for about 4 months now and I tell you , the wonders it does alone for my hair was all the proof I needed ! My hair is hard to work with .. my daughter hair on the other hand is more of a softer thicker texture of hair the way the shampoo and conditioner defines her curls are miraculous ! You can see her curls from miles away. The therapeutic conditioner leaves tour scalp feeling fresh& cool as if you just gave your scalp some listerine mouthwash lol the feeling is great ! The miracle drops are actually a blessing , I've gotten growth results as quick as 2 weeks . Ms Jesseca knew exactly what she was getting herself into when she thought about making kaleidoscope Miracle drops , she giving people their confidence back as well as their edges !! Thanks name Judy !!
