Beat the deer --

-- by planting my herbs and a few vegetables in the planter box on my deck! So far, so good, and it is sure easy (with the wheels) to move around to catch the rain, sun, etc. A very well made and attractive addition.

Fabulous planter box!

My husband and I were extremely pleased with the quality of this planter box. I must say, though, that even though my husband is a very handy guy, it took him almost two hours to assemble the box. Well made & the mobility is a great feature!

My son in law put the raised garden bed together. He had his handy dandy drill that made the process quicker. It's sturdy and appealing to the eye. This is absolutely perfect for me and my bad back. Thinking about purchasing another one to make the patio look twice as nice. The wheels allow me to move it if our area gets too much rain.

Great garden cart!

Took way longer for me than the 20 minute estimate to put together however directions were easy to follow and it turned out great! Haven't planted yet but love that I can move it around as needed for sun, rain, etc. I will likely stain mine to coordinate with deck decor. Quality seems good and sturdy. Solid wood.
