

RETAIL GAS STATIONS: BRANDED FUELS

Offen Petroleum is a contracted fuel supplier for hundreds of independent retailers across the Intermountain West. Offen has spent much of the past decade building the brand identity for these growing businesses. If you're a gas station owner who is looking to brand one or all your locations, Offen can help you with sales projections, brand awareness, and deciding if your store would be a good fit for any of our great brands: Conoco, Exxon, 76, Phillips 66, Shell, or Sinclair.

LOCAL AND NATION FLEETS: UNBRANDED FUELS

Offen Petroleum is one of the largest distributors of quality unbranded fuels in the Intermountain West. We supply national big-box chains, in-town trucking fleets, over-the-road logistics big box chains, in town trucking fleets, over the road logistics fleets, railroads, construction crews, farmers, and more. Offen can deliver anything from 250 gallons of diesel fuel, to 8500 gallons of gasoline in a single delivery. Our highly skilled and well-trained staff of drivers equipped with our modern, well maintained fleet of trucks are working diligently to make your delivery within 24 hours of your order.
