Description Specifications Common Questions

With an 8.5" writing screen, fun colors and a kid-friendly protective cover, the Jot Kids reusable writing tablet is perfect for kids' games, handwriting practice or drawing!

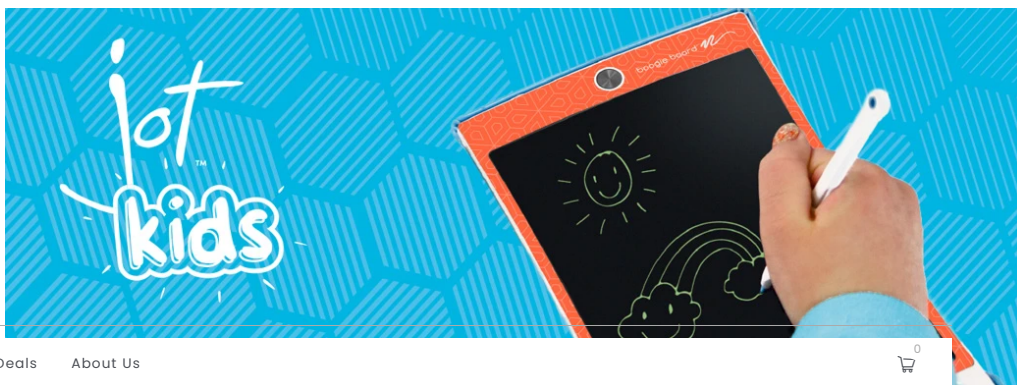

Kids can write with anything, including the stylus, a pen cap or even their fingernail. With the push of a button, the Jot Kids instantly clears itself. There are no erase marks or wiping needed.

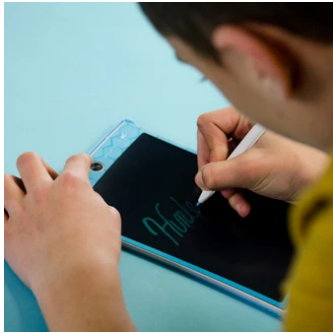

The bright, durable display and integrated kickstand feature, as well as magnets, makes this a great writing tablet for all your kids' projects. The protective cover can be used to protect your kids' creations when they take their Jot Kids writing tablet on the go or can be popped onto the back for easy use.

Jot Kids includes a replaceable battery so there are no plugs or chargers laying around.

Jot Kids is Stage 3: Imagine

Perfect for kids who are using their imagination to write and create with intention and purpose

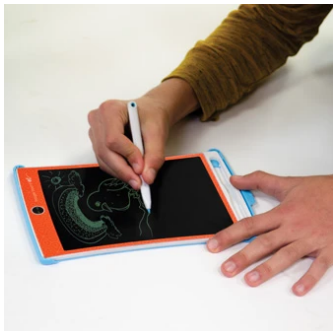

Perfect for kids who love writing and doodling

With an 8.5" writing screen, the Jot Kids reusable writing tablet is perfect for kids' games, handwriting practice or drawing!

Write with anything

Jot Kids writing tablet uses Boogie Board's LCD technology, which means your kids can write with anything you have handy - the included stylus, a pen or even your fingernail! No special markers required.

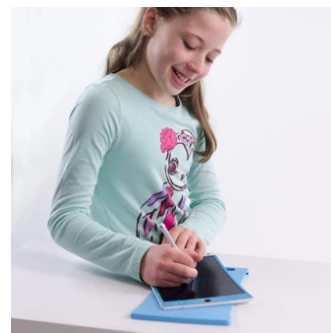

Push to clear

When kids are ready to start again, they just push the button and watch the writing tablet instantly erase itself. There's no need to wipe anything or use special erasers.

Great for the playroom or on the go!

With the colorful protective cover, your kids can protect their creations when they're out and about. Or you display their creations with built-in magnets and kickstand!

Great math tool!

Grandma on Apr 27, 2021

Love it! My granddaughter is homeschooled and uses it for working out math problems. I liked it so much I got one for myself.

Our Kids Love Their Boogie Board - Keeps Them Busy & Focused!

Brad on Jan 21, 2021

With our kids schooling from home nowadays it's been hard to keep them focused. The Boogie Board is the perfect solution making school work fun and mess free! I got one for each of my kids as well as one for me and my wife. It's a hit at our household!
