INTERIOR DESIGN SERVICES

At LORNA GROSS Interior Design, we believe our clients deserve to have interiors as unique as they are, showcasing the best in taste and class.

That's why, for everything from new construction to renovations to custom interior furnishings and decor, we offer detail-oriented, concierge-like interior design services. Luxury-minded clients come to us for an individualized approach and aesthetic that yields layered, dynamic and highly personalized spaces. Get the customized setting you've envisioned, complete with all the details, while relying on our interior design to manage all the moving parts throughout the process.

We pride ourselves on our interior design Vision sessions. You'll receive expert help transforming residential or commercial spaces into the attention-grabbing, beautiful, high-end places where you'll be eager to spend time and welcome others. We work with residential and commercial clients. Keep reading to learn more about our specific interior services.

Full-Service Residential Design

Experience a luxury, white-glove service from beginning to end with Lorna Gross Interior Design. Specializing in a wide range of residential design styles, our full-service interior design help makes it possible to create the interior you've always wanted. We offer an elevated experience that fuses decades of expertise and knowledge with the personality, values, and energy of our clients.

New Construction & Renovation Design

From electrical and lighting plans for ground-up new construction to complete kitchen renovations, LGID develops drawings and renderings to help execute your vision. We partner with builders and architects to oversee the interior's workmanship. Because we are one of the rare licensed and certified interior design firms, we are well-versed in industry codes to ensure that you and your family will be living in a safe and hazard-free home.

Interior Furnishings & Custom Creations

Because we know you are unique, we believe individuality is important and we create interiors that are highly personalized and difficult to duplicate. In our interior styling services, we utilize our well-vetted host of exclusive sources that focus on quality, leaving us with the most ideal furnishings to showcase in your home. A well-designed room typically contains between 40 to 50 components. We curate and manage all of the logistics from shipping to warehousing, to the final reveal.

Commercial Design

From salons and offices to hospitality facilities, we are adept at designing commercial properties. For restaurants especially, we know how to create ambiance that enhances the menu and draws in more diners. With decades of marketing and branding experience, our team envisions design solutions that ultimately optimize your brand and create a memorable experience for your customers.

Lifestyle & Decor

@LORNAGROSSDESIGNS

Our clients lead very busy lives so we take pride in making their lives easier during the process. From project management to sourcing artwork, and china to contractor referrals and coordinating events, we support our clients with all things design-related and more.
