FLARE ENERGY

$64.95

Flare Energy capsules may help to keep your energy running high. Our unique combination of amino acids, probiotics, enzymes, vitamins, and minerals support energy production and work on a cellular level to increase your energy. Flare Energy capsules are high in important B vitamins (B1, B2, B3, B5, B6 and B12) and also contain branched-chain amino acid.

Flare Energy is also high in minerals such as chromium and selenium, which may also increase muscle growth and help regulate your metabolism. For an added energy boost; Flare Energy Capsules contain green coffee bean extract, green tea, and guarana. Green coffee bean extract is high in chlorogenic acid, which is believed to have weight management effects while Guarana helps to maintain focus and mental energy.

Flare Energy Capsules also contain CoQ10, the nutrient that your body's cells require to produce energy, and kelp, a natural source of iodine, an essential component in thyroid hormone production.

Directions: Take one a day. Go conquer the day. Best if taken in the morning after a full meal.
