★★★★★ No Nasty Sugar Coating! My Daughter Loves Them!
Reviewed in the United States on January 24, 2018

Verified Purchase

My daughter absolutely refused to eat the calcium chews that had the "sugar" coating. She takes prednisone, and she has to take calcium! Those were the only ones I could find anywhere! I found a review here on Amazon about these chews, which intrigued me to buy them.

My daughter loves them! I am so relieved! They smell good, their in cute small stars, she likes the fast of them, and there is no nasty sugar coating. I am so thankful for the review I read, so this is why I am posting my review. So thank you to whoever you are that posted your review about your kids experience! It helped me greatly, and now I am buying these every month.

★★★★★ No nasty sugar coating, taste great!

Reviewed in the United States on September 19, 2017

The ONLY gummy calcium for kids I could find that isn't coated with tons of sugar! My two kids (3 and 9) loved them, even more than the smarty pants regular vitamins they take. I will definitely be buying these regularly now.
