It's a replacement part !
OK, this is just a replacement part, but I've owned a few homes and rental houses, and replaced several garage door openers. Every time I had the need for parts or tech support, Genie has been helpful and responsive. I will not buy any other brand.

Genie has given great support. I will not buy any other brand.

The was just what we needed. The bolt holes are smaller than the ones on our 13+ years old door. The door is working great.

A We do not have a different hole patterned bracket.
