BLUE RIDGE

Of all the fragrances in the world, few if any are as universally loved as Sandalwood. Our fragrance Blue Ridge is meant to highlight everything we love about Sandalwood. The warm and woody fragrance is accented with top notes of fresh Sage and smooth Amber, to create a fragrance that is both familiar and intriguing.

Blue Ridge gets its name from one of the oldest mountain ranges in the world. Running from Georgia to Pennsylvania, the Blue Ridge mountains may not be tall or rocky, but they are stunning thanks to the beautiful forest that covers the countless peaks. The dense trees are responsible for giving the mountains their unique blue fog that stretches far beyond what the eye can see.

Like the mountains, Blue Ridge is most striking not because of a single element, but rather the confluence of each of the fragrances combined. The result is an unforgettable fragrance that you will likely want to make your signature scent.

SOLID FRAGRANCE

Each Fulton & Roark fragrance is designed to evoke a vivid feeling, and a sense of atmosphere and occasion. Using a blend of naturally sourced essential oils and premium fragrance ingredients, each cologne offers its own experience.

These highly concentrated solid colognes offer a long-lasting and steady fragrance designed to keep you fresh. More subtle than their liquid counterparts, F&R's solids provide a personal fragrance—for those who are close to you, but not the whole office.

The solid metal containers travel easily in a gym bag, pocket or carry-on, allowing a man to smell his best no matter where he goes.

Great scent. Pricy
I love the scent and customer service...
However, I do not foresee me being a long term customer due to the price. $52 is a bit much for a tea spoon of cologne in a metal box. I'd gladly pay $25 for a cardboard container and a TABLE spoon full of cologne. Refills are even more expensive... around $35 per refill... But you have to buy two! $70! I'll buy more when you lower your price a bit.

Awesomeness
Loved it! Excellent and enjoyable experience testing the samples and choosing the scent that I liked the most. It was hard to pick just one!
