★★★★★ Great product. Made in China.

I do love this product but am disheartened that it is made in China (directions of use are not in English). Won't buy again just because of that and will have to find a similar alternative

I bought this with the teatamin sleeping mask and I love both of them so much! This one is a little different in that it is more moisturizing. It makes my skin glow in the morning and my makeup just glides on. Another thing I really like about this product (or the brand in general) is that they make their products without artificial coloring or fragrance (which is even better for people like me who have sensitive skin!) I will have to keep using it consistently to see what effect it has on brightening my face - but my face is definitely a lot more moisturized and I don't see the redness as much. In love with both sleeping masks from Nightingale :)

★★★★★ BUY THIS!!

Reviewed in the United States on June 9, 2020

I'm not just saying this because I take skincare VERY seriously, but I LOVE this product! I just sent the details to my mom so that she can buy it too. I put it on after a shower and sleep with it on my face and in the morning my skin is GLOWING. It isn't drying or harsh like some masks, and it smells lovely. People have commented to me about my clear skin and I've stopped wearing face makeup.

Holy cow. I waited until the night after to write a review and my pores are TINY!! It was very annoying to have to sleep in this because I like to sleep on my side but other than that I'm floored with the results. Im eager to try the other mask from this brand now. I want to see if using this long term will fade any acne scars. I feel so pretty today with tiny pores

★★★★★ A good all in one!

Reviewed in the United States on May 12, 2018

Verified Purchase

I've been using this for two weeks and I'm really enjoying it! My skin profile: combo (oily t-zone with random dry patches), clog prone, acne prone

First and foremost, this sleeping mask does not break my sensitive skin out. Nor does it dehydrate it or increase dry patches, which some skincare items I've used in the past have done. It also does not make me more oily/greasy.

Now as to what this mask does.. I purchased this mask since it is supposed to be good for brightening and renewing dull skin, which I have been trying to achieve in the past few months, and I think this mask delivers. I often don't get enough sleep or drink enough water, so I wake up in the morning with tired and dull skin. This masks helps counteract that when I use it the night before. It makes my skin feel plump and smooth. In addition, I have noticed slight fading of recent hyperpigmentation/acne scars, which vitamin c is supposed to help with and which this mask did. I will continue to monitor the fading with even longer use.

Mehh...I'm a little disappointed, the bottles instructions are all in Chinese, I've been using for a few days and I don't see nor feel a difference. Over-priced lotion, I don't think this is anything more than that
