Product Description

SkaterAid™

Skating Trainer - Safe For Wood & Concrete Floors

KARBEN SPORTS

Adjustable Height Settings

The SkaterAid can be set at a position that's most comfortable for a new skater to grip while they're in motion. From the floor, the top handle can be set to 25", 28", 31" or 34"

To test these heights at home, before purchase, we recommend laying a broom handle or bar horizontally at these set heights then grip to gauge the comfort level.

Less than 10 min. assembly

Each SkaterAid is partially assembled out of the box to help make the final assembly a breeze. With the use of a mallet (even the heel of a boot can work) and securing the included fasteners you're up and roller skating!

Tough as nails!

Karben sources U.S. produced structural-grade PVC (sometimes called furniture grade) for all of its products. Unlike big-box store bought "plumbing grade" PVC, structural grade is substantially stronger and crack resistant.

Resists UV light damage

One of the many benefits of structural-grade PVC is its ability to resist fading, or yellowing, of the plastic in direct sunlight. This UV resistance helps keep the material looking like the day you bought it for years to come.

Made in the USA

Proudly made in the USA, in Lenexa, KS (10 minutes from downtown Kansas City). Manufacturing facility, warehouse and operations out of the Meritex Business Park Underground Complex.

Have a question? Search for answers

- Question: Can this work for an adult?

Answer: It would depend on your height and comfort level. If you're under approximate 5' I believe you'd feel comfortable however to be safe, I'd recommend ordering the XL version which you can cut down the verticle supports to fit your desired height. For the standard SkaterAid and adolescents or adults using them, we always ... see more

It shows the link but it is not a direct order of money. Your kid will have with out it. My kid run to much fast to it

...and it stuck in a crack then she biffed over it. They are charging way too much for some sprinkler pipe fitted together. Take my advice and save yourself some money. We work too hard for this foolish purchase.

Served its purpose. Saved a lot of falls and made learning to skate a lot of fun. The adjustable height was very beneficial.

★★★★★ No one should learn roller skating without this

What a difference! This device is the best thing ever invented. And so simple. It makes easier to skate around without holding the walls, so feet move free. I wish the price was cheaper, $129 for pvc connections is a little too much. It could sell much more, as more people could afford it, because this is a great gadget.

I'm getting back into roller skating and a fall as an adult is a lot tougher than I remember as a kid! Luckily, I just added some extra PVC pipe from Home Depot to make it tall enough for me (I'm 5' 5"). Works great!

THIS GUIDE IS A BIT HELPFUL TOO IF YOU HAVE SOME FOOT PAIN AND NEED A LITTLE EXTRA ASSISTANCE WALKING...JUST LIKE A WALKER. NOT AS STRONG.. BUT STRONG ENOUGH IF YOU NEED A LITTLE HELP. SO IT HAS MULTIPLE FUNCTIONS! (LOL!!!) EXCELLENT BUY. I HIGHLY RECOMMEND.

★★★★★ Should have ordered two

Worth it. I have 2 children learning how to skate and after holding them up and catching them as they fell I ordered this. Lovely coloring. Solid. Smooth rolling. Easy to assemble. Will need a drill to add some screws to really secure things. As an adult if I was just learning to skate I would want this. Thank you for saving this Mom's back with your awesome product.

★★★★★ Skate aid

Reviewed in the United States on January 2, 2020

My grandchildren loved the skate aid for Christmas because neither could skate. Three days later my 8 year old granddaughter began skating without the aid. Since she was still a little off balance we asked her to continue with the aid for a while.
