Ney Bailey – My Thieving, Throwdown Prayer

Ney Bailey tells how God hears and answers all prayers, relating an experience she had in Poland when people stole her passport, money, belongings.

Watch Story

Vonette Bright – All or Nothing

Vonette Bright talks about when Bill Bright decided God had called him to start Campus Crusade. He was tempted to hold on to his lucrative businesses, but decided he had to give God all his time and trust in Him alone.

Roy Rosedale – Change the Heart, Change the Village

Roy Rosedale talks about two experiences. One, where he helped a village's physical needs, but since they weren't spiritually nurtured the physical help was only a temporary fix. The other place, he fed them spiritually, and in turn they changed their lives and helped each other's physical needs.

Mounir & Violet Faragalla – God Derails My Train

Mounir & Violet Faragalla talk about how they had their entire lives planned in Egypt as bankers and teachers until God came around and derailed their train, instead calling them to start an evangelical ministry in hostile Egypt, much to their surprise and protest.

Ney Bailey – Speaking with The Lord

Ney Bailey gives advice on how to seek the Lord before giving speeches to a large audience.

Roger Bruehl – Ready or Not, Here Leadership Comes

Roger explains how he wasn't ready to be put into a leadership position even though he thought he was. Yet God sustained him through the experience and turned his inexperience into a successful ministry.

Roe Brooks – Witness to The Impossible

Roe Brooks tells how one of God's favorite things to do is the impossible. Roe gives an example through a story about one man's faith quest to get all his God mocking friends into a relationship with the Lord.
