Our Alliance of Leading Music Education Companies

TrueFire

TrueFire has collaborated with 300+ top artists and educators to produce what Guitar Player Magazine calls "the planet's largest and most comprehensive selection of online guitar and bass lessons." Two million guitar players, from virtually every country in the world, "learn, practice, and play" with TrueFire's interactive video lessons and patented learning systems. TrueFire's course library features 50,000+ video lessons covering all styles, techniques and levels of play.

ArtistWorks

ArtistWorks partners with master musicians, enabling them to create and preserve their teaching legacy online. The faculty bring decades of performing, recording, and teaching expertise to music learners everywhere. ArtistWorks' multi-patented Video Exchange® platform empowers world-renowned musicians to "teach the world music" with extensive lessons, plus personal video feedback to student's submissions, creating an innovative, two-way instruction all members learn from.

JamPlay

JamPlay is a leading resource for learning to play the guitar and bass online. Featuring content created by college professors, primary school educators, lifelong instructors and touring musicians from your favorite bands, JamPlay features a rich curriculum that can meet the student wherever they are in their musical journey. Using a combination of high-quality, multi-camera angle video and world-class teaching tools, JamPlay provides a complete learning experience.
