BRING THE LAWRY'S EXPERIENCE HOME

In 1938, Lawrence Frank and Walter Van de Kamp opened Lawry's The Prime Rib in Beverly Hills, offering what they called "The greatest meal in America."

The most memorable aspect of Lawry's dining experience is a gleaming 600-pound Art Deco silver cart, wheeled to the table by a Master Carver. The cart's lid is opened to reveal succulent standing ribs of beef and side dishes, which are carved and plated tableside to the guest's preference.

Lawry's The Prime Rib is still run by succeeding generations of the founding families. It continues to serve essentially the same meal the same way Lawrence Frank first imagined it. Learn more about the history of Lawry's one-of-a-kind dining experience.

Now, you can share in that long history when you enjoy Lawry's At Home.
