

The Buonopane Group, LLC (TBG) is a premier healthcare consulting firm that provides strategic consulting services to healthcare providers throughout the United States. We partner with large integrated healthcare systems, academic medical centers, tertiary hospitals, community hospitals and large physician groups to deliver uniquely tailored charge solutions for improved financial performance. We have generated significant results for our clients that are unmatched by any other firm in the industry.

TBG provides strategic consulting services to develop rational, defensible and transparent charge strategy. Working in partnership with our healthcare provider clients, we create solutions that result in a clean chargemaster and competitive pricing. As a result, TBG solutions help clients meet budgetary requirements and achieve the overall financial and strategic goals of the organization.

TBG was founded in 2004 by Denise Buonopane. Denise has over 35 years of healthcare industry experience. Denise, along with her team of charge strategy experts, are committed to providing exceptional client service and delivering transparent measurable results.
